A WICKED FRAUD.

HOW MARK TWAIN WAS SOLD IN NEWARK.

The Newark Press contains the following exposition of what "Mark Twain" terms "a wicked fraud," perpetrated on him during his recent lecturing visit to that city:

It is seldom pleasant to tell on one's self, but sometimes it is a sort of a relief to a man to make a sad confession. I wish to unburden my mind now, and yet I almost believe that I am moved to do it more because I long to bring censure upon another man than because I desire to pour balm upon my wounded heart. (I don't know what balm is, but I believe it is the correct expression to use in this connection—never having seen any balm.) You may remember that I lectured in Newark lately for the young gentlemen of the Claytonian Society. I did at any rate. During the afternoon of that day I was talking with one of the young gentlemen just referred to, and he said he had an uncle, who, from some cause or other, seemed to have grown permanently bereft of all emotion. And with tears in his eyes, this young man said:

"Oh, if I could only see him laugh once more! Oh, if I could only see him weep!"

I was touched. I could never withstand distress. I said:

"Bring him to my lecture. I'll start him for you.

"Oh, if I could but do it! If you could but do it, all our family would bless you forevermore—for he is very dear to us. Oh, my benefactor, can you make him laugh? can you bring soothing tears to those parched orbs?"

I was profoundly moved. I said:

"My son, bring the old party around. I have got some jokes in that lecture that will make him laugh if there is any laugh in him—and if they miss fire, I have got some others that'll make him cry, or kill him, one or the other."

Then the young man blessed me, and wept on my neck, and blew his nose on my coat tail, and went after his uncle. He placed him in a full view, in the second row of benches that night, and I began on him. I tried him with mild jokes; then with severe ones; I dosed him with bad jokes and riddled him with good ones; I fired old stale jokes into him, and peppered him fore and aft with red hot new one's; I warmed up my work, and assaulted him on the right and left, in front and behind; I fumed and sweated, and charged and routed, till I was hoarse and sick, and frantic and furious; but I never moved him once; I never started a smile or a tear. Never a ghost of a smile, and never a suspicion of moisture. I was astounded. I closed the lecture at last with one despairing shriek—with one wild burst of humor, and hurled a joke of supernatural atrocity full at him. It never phased him. Then I sat down, bewildered and exhausted.

The president of the society came up and bathed my head with cold water, and said:

"What made you carry on so toward the last?

I said: "I was trying to make that confounded old fool laugh, in the second row."

And he said: "Well, you were wasting your time—because he is deaf and dumb, and blind as a badger."

Now was that any way for that old man's nephew to impose on a stranger and orphan like me? I simply ask you, as a man and a brother, if that was any way for him to do?

HEROISM ON THE SCAFFOLD.

In an article in the N. Y. Weekly, entitled "Scenes at the Gallows," among heroic deaths upon the scaffold is mentioned that of Capt. John Y. Beale—a gallant Confederate naval officer, who was hung—murdered—in 1864, upon Governor's Island, upon some charge trumped up by the Yankees—the writer says of that gallant and unfortunate gentleman:

In my own experience, he was the noblest criminal ever found worthy of death.

Between his place of confinement and the scaffold, was a distance of several rods, which he was compelled to walk, between the guards and the executioner by his side.

The gallows was situated on a green knoll, commanding a lookout over the bay, to the South-west, and was surrounded by a "select" throng of invited guests of perhaps a hundred and fifty.

Beale marched over the green hillocks, very pale but perfectly self-possessed. The ominous black cap was on his head, and its long tassel swayed in the fresh morning breeze that breathed gently from the sea. His step was firm and steady, and, upon arriving at the edge of the scaffold, he gazed at the dread instrument of death without the least exhibition of emotion—no matter what wild thoughts may have made a theatre of his dissolute breast. It was a beautiful day. The ground upon which he stood, and the Islands surrounding it, were fresh and green with the first kiss of early spring; Manhattan Island, with its steeples and towers, gleamed in the distance; and the bright blue waters of the bay were leaping in the glad, morning sunlight.

Every object invited the privilege of existence, and rebuked the very idea of death.

But by no expression of the doomed man's face could be detected the slightest emotion. He submitted to the long and tedious reading of his sentence without impatience, and made the few remarks in palliation of his crime, which have been recorded in all our daily press; but just before the black cap—Heaven! what an infinitude of love and beauty it shuts out at such an hour!—was drawn over his face, I—who stood nearest to him, with the exception of the hangman—I, alone, heard him utter the words:

"I am coming to you quickly, Alice; do not think that I am afraid."

The tone of the voice was low and steady, and the next instant he was launched into eternity; but there was something brave and simple in those last words, the memory of which has never ceased to haunt me.

They had, at least, a strange moral contrast to the words of the worthy executioner, after the final struggle, which, if I remember rightly, were something like:

"He went off like a true game'un, and I take credit that I made it so easy. If he had made a single extra kick, I never should have forgiven myself."

A charter has been granted in Richmond for the incorporation of a society under the name of "the Southern Mutual Benevolent Association," the object is to assist its members in sickness, and aid them in want.

LIFE INSURANCE.

THE KNICKERBOCKER

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Morehead, Ruffin, Ellis and Vance did preside as the fathers and protectors of the people!

The next time I write I will endeavor to give you some more pleasant news from Fayetteville.

CLIO.

THE ONLY BRANCH OFFICE OF LIFE INSURANCE IN THIS SECTION WHERE POLICIES ARE ISSUED AND LOSSES PAID.

ASSETS NEARLY

$5,000,000.

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIable Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY. Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

Importance of Life Insurance.

Read another forcible illustration of how the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY pays its losses:—

"Received, at Raleigh, N. C., Jan 29th, 1869 of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Conn Mutual Life Ins Co., two thousand five hundred and forty-five dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 84,031 and dividend on the life of my late husband, ——, and I hereby surrender all my right, title and interest in the same to said Company.

(Signed) ——— ———, of Newbern, N. C."

We refrain from publishing the names of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 50 per cent. dividend of $45 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning and the present dividend (Feb 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this twentieth annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 45 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced all-cash premium table with immediate annual dividends.

This company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLION DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $154 actually invested for every $100 of its liabilities. Its plans of business comprise all the desirable forms of insurance.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. STJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Polices at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6.000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurances.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUS, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. F. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. F. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18 1869

TRUCE BROKEN.

We proclaimed a truce between Judge Watts and the Sentinel, more than a month ago. It is not our fault that it is broken.—We think him a wicked man who wantonly assails the Judiciary of his country. We think him a weak man, and a worthless citizen, who, seeing Judicial error or Judicial corruption, fears to speak of it.

Don't misunderstand us. We have seen no Judicial corruption on the part of Judge Watts. We have only seen him too cold on some Judicial inquiries and too hot on others. Too hot, when, by order of our "cussing" Governor, he adjourns Court at Louisburg to go to Halifax to inquire about an assault made upon one John H. Everett. This was a political sensation move of the "cussing" Governor to which the Judge should not have lent himself. Any Magistrate in Halifax could have heard the matter and bound over the parties as well as his Honor, Judge Watts.

If our "cussing" beloved Governor can believe himself, let him look to the Standard of 1855, or thereabouts, and he will see that he justly spoke of this same Everett as a cut throat assassin, &c., &c., for a cowardly attack upon an humble but honest and well known citizen of the State, Patrick McGowan.

This same man Everett, we are informed, was condemned to be shot, during the war, for plundering and stealing. Our "cussing beloved" appointed this assassin, as he called him and as he knew him to be, a magistrate for Halifax county. This plunderer and assassin, in September last, hastens to Raleigh, alleging that loyal men were not safe in Halifax, and that he had been shot at. Holden sends Coleman, the Attorney General, and Watts, the Judge, accompanied by a militia Company, to return to Halifax with his loyal assassinating Squire, to give him protection.

We copy from the Attorney General's report his account of this matter, as discreditable to the Governor, as his approval of the Penitentiary swindle and sale of bonds at 65.

In the matter of Everett, of Halifax county, says the Attorney General, the facts are substantially as follows:

"Mr. Everitt alleged to the Governor that in the month of September last, he had been assaulted and fired upon, and that his life was in danger, and that the civil authorities could not protect him. Upon those representations, a Company of militia from Enfield and equiped for active service, were ordered to Weldon, and the Attorney General requested by the Governor to accompany Mr. Everitt, and investigate the matter. He did so, and upon arriving at Weldon, found the troops under arms and good order prevailing. Upon the assurances of the Sheriff, and other officers of the county, that a full and peaceable investigation could be had without the aid of the militia, the Attorney General recommended that they be discharged, which was accordingly done. At the request of Mr. Everitt, proceedings in the matter were stayed, he alleging that he could not get justice."

The truth is, as we have heard, this cut-throat Squire of our "cussing beloved" made up the whole story and then backed by the Judge, Attorney General, "cussing" Governor, and a Company of his militia, he flies from the investigation and from the State, and has not been heard from since he parted with the Judge and Attorney General, and the militia Company at Weldon.

"Oh, Liberty, how many crimes are committed in thy name!" "Oh, Loyalty, how many thieves cover with thy cloak!"

Herein the Judge was too hot.

Now, we will proceed to show when he was too cold.

On Thursday, of the last term of the Court, the Grand Jury presented the Editor of the Standard, and Attorney for the Chatham Railroad, and a number of others, for corruption.

In a few minutes after the presentment was made, the Judge adjourned the Court, before the Solicitor, General Cox, could draw bills of indictment.

The Judge must have known, from the newspapers, that bribery and corruption was charged upon the members of the Legislature. Yet, he adjourns Court, on Thursday evening, soon after the presentment was made by the Jury.

General Cox was once President of the Chatham Road, but we know he has too much Confederate pluck to hesitate about the performance of his duty, if the Judge had continued the Court until Saturday night, as he should have done.

A distinguished member of the Legislature is indicted at the Court now being held by Judge Watts for stealing a pistol. He failed to appear, at the last fall term. He failed to appear at the first week of the present Term. If the Judge and Solicitor don't send a special capias for him, we shall think they do not give us the test they have in the "shop."

THE STATE TREASURY STILL EMPTY.—We learn that our State Treasury is still without money to pay off the hands in the Capitol, and they are consequently put to great inconvenience. Some time ago, one of the hands wanted a cabbage on credit, but was refused; more recently, another of the hands wanted a copy of Jefferson's Manual, and asked to be credited for the same, and was refused!

LICENSED.—The Supreme Court has licensed, during the present term, John K. Gibson, Esq., of Orange, to practice law in the several Courts of this State.

NO PRAYERS, NO PIETY, NO MONEY. BUT DRUNKENNESS AMONG THE HANDS.

Yesterday, the most distinguished of all the hands, was too drunk to walk to the Capitol. He is a great pet and favorite of the Governor; no wonder he "cusses" and gets drunk, too. We don't mention this to expose the hand, but the Governor.

We think this high functionary has improved in his behavior since our stride in this city, as we have, in our loyalty; for instance, in December, we saw him standing at a bar of a grog shop where he drank, all alone. In January he was known to go in with Company, where he friend Joseph treated all hands. In February, and no later than yesterday, we saw him, with our own eyes, as if holding up the grog shop on Fayetteville street. He was standing right at the door, lazily bent over and forward, as if he were a prop for the house.

On Monday, when one of the hands, a Minister of the Gospel and laborer in the vineyard, was discussing the disgraceful affair between the Auditor and the Supreme Court, the pious member said, the Court had the cholic, and was in an ill humor. Col. Malone called him to order. The Speaker pro tem, (carpet-bag French,) with great promptitude, required him to state his point of order. Col. Malone said, it was not respectful so to speak of the Court. The Speaker ruled the point "well taken." The pious hand did not take his seat immediately, but held the floor, talking, when the black doorkeeper approached and required him to take his seat, and actually collared, and seated him. If black or white doorkeeper had so behaved to "the big Indian," or any carpet bag member, we believe they would have cut his throat.

Lorenzo Dow use to say, "the Lord takes care of his own." He did so, in this case. Our native priest did not stain his clerical robes by cutting the throat of the negro—, or even resisting his unheard of violence. He relied upon the word, "Vengence is mine, saith the Lord, I will repay. Sure enough, that very day, the Lord put it into the mind and heart of the Engrossing Clerk to whip that negro doorkeeper, like a dog. They had three fights, and the doorkeeper is bruised; he is well bruised; he is worse bruised than the Attorney Gen. Coleman is, by Turpentine Joe, the Speaker of the House.

The way of the righteous would be hard indeed, among these wicked hands, if there was no power on high to defend and save. If this indignity had been offered to the Rev. Carpet Bag Pepper, whose soul's asleep, we fear he would have "cussed" like the Governor, 'Court or no Court, Judge or no Judge, Cholic or no Cholic, d——,' and so on—the Governor can repeat it, but we can't profane our pen by writing it.

OLD JOHN BROWN'S SOUL STILL ON THE MARCH.

It may be that old John Brown's soul is still marching on. It looks a little like it might be on the march, if there is anything to be learned from the proceedings of the rump Congress. "Nigger on the brain," has well nigh caused a general fight in the halls of the national Legislature. Representatives threatened to kick Senators from the House. Beast Butler, with the natural instincts of the animal, appeared as the "master of ceremonies," and behaved exceedingly unbecoming a man, who is supposed to be worth at least half a million of dollars in silver—not in the shape of U. S. coin, but in spoons. Notwithstanding Butler acted very naughtily, he was not the only man who played fool on the occasion. There were, and are, a sufficient number of Butlers in Congress to give that august body, not a national reputation, merely, but a world wide fame—not a fame for Americans abroad to be proud of, but a fame to make our citizens in foreign lands blush.

Having achieved a great victory by brute force, the ultra Radicals proclaim themselves "masters of the situation," and with a consciousness of their power, seek to trample down law and order—do extra-constitutional acts—nullify opinions and orders of the Supreme Courts,—arrest Marshals in the discharge of their duties,—wrest from the hands of the officers, prisoners on their way to jail,—and in sundry and all conceivable ways, they pull down the old established landmarks and license every man, who can pay twenty dollars, to practice law!

Oh, what an age! Who can doubt of the onward march of the soul of old John Brown? Yes, we believe it! Have we not able representatives in our Legislatures?—Have we not able magistrates, whose first and only qualification consists in their knowing how to sharpen a razor!

Marching on! It is no stretch of imagination to see that old soul astride a velocipede and rushing forward to its coveted goal. The very air rings with the soul of old John. Little negroes talk about Chapel Hill and College! Carpet-baggers clap their hands in frenzied joy at the near approach of the completion of the temple of "social equality!" Silver stars on the lappels of sable police officers, tell us that the soul of old John is in the land. And this is the feast to which Reconstruction invites us.

ACCIDENT TO MR. STEPHENS.—The Atlantic Era of Thursday regrets to learn that Hon. A. H Stephens was very seriously injured on Sunday last by a heavy gate falling on him.

POMEROY'S DEMOCRAT.—M. M. or "Brick" Pomeroy's new paper already exceeds in circulation every other political paper in the world. It is "red hot," and of unusual interest. Send for sample copies. Printing House Square, New York City.

The New York Herald, of Thursday, says: "By the steamer San Francisco, which arrived at this port about midnight, from Vera Cruz, we learn that as the agent at Sisal put off to the steamer the bells were ringing violently, and the authorities were impressing every person they could find.—It was believed that a pronunciamento had taken place in Merida, and that the troops there were concerned in it. They were Imperial formerly, and are disaffected towards the Juarez Government.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 17, 1869.

NOTICE OF BILLS.

Mr. Lassiter: Of a bill to legalize certain acts relating to Probate Judges.

Mr. Stephenson: Of a bill to grant a Charter to the Milton & Danville Railroad Company.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret: Of a bill to provide for the election of Mayor for the town of Beaufort.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Lassiter: A bill to extend the time for registering deeds. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. Martindale: A bill in favor of J. M. Bateman, of Washington County. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. Love: A bill to facilitate the payment of old debts. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Mr. Blythe: A resolution relating to the Cherokee Indians. Referred to a Select Committee, Messrs. Blythe, Love and Davis.

On motion of Mr. Love, the rules were suspended, and the bill to authorize the formation of Corporations for different purposes, was taken up, and passed its second reading.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to provide a system of Public Instruction, was taken up and considered by sections.

Mr. Osborne moved to amend the 5th section, providing that the books and course of instruction shall be referred to the General Assembly for their approbation, before it is adopted by the Board which was lost.

NAYS.—Messrs. Beasley, Beeman, Bellamy, Burns, Blythe, Cook, Davis, Eppes, colored, Forkner, Galloway, colored, Hyman, colored, Jones, of Wake, Long, Mason, Martindale, Melchor, Moore, of Carteret, McLaughlin, Robbins, Smith, Stephens, Sweet, Welker, and White—24.

Mr. Love said he was opposed to placing in the hands of any one man, particularly the Superintendent of Public Instruction who hails from the land of isms, the power to say what text book shall be used by our schools, and moved to strike out the whole of the 5th section, which was lost.

Mr. Robbins moved to amend the section by inserting the following, Provided, the text-books and all publications prescribed and used in the public schools shall be free from sectarian, denominational, and party bias in religion and politics.

Mr. Jones, of Wake, moved to amend the amendment by striking out all after the word provided, and insert the following:

In studies pertaining to the politics of the general government or of the State, the instruction shall be an unconditional sentiment of love for an unconditional and perpetual Union of the States, which prevailed, and the section, as amended, was adopted.

The sixth section provides that the text book selected and prescribed by the Board of Education, shall remain in use not less than five years.

Mr. Osborne moved to strike out the entire section, which prevailed.

NAYS.—Messrs. Beeman, Bellamy, Burns, Cook, Davis, Eppes, colored, Forkner, Hyman, colored, Jones, of Wake, Long, Moore, of Carteret, Stephens, Welker and White—14.

Messrs. Beeman, Cook and Stephens afterwards changed their votes to the affirmative.

The seventh section authorizes the Board and instructs them to hold as many teachers in the Institution, annually, as they shall deem expedient.

Mr. Osborne moved to strike out the section, which was lost.

Pending its further consideration the Senate adjourned until to morrow, at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 17, 1869.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Wilkie, Green and Downing, also, to Mr. Shaver on account of sickness in his family.

Mr. Hawkins, from the Committee on Enrollment, reported the following bills as being correctly enrolled, to-wit:

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Bill to amend the charter of the Judson Female College.

Bill to repeal an act to provide for the employment of convicts and the erection of a Penitentiary.

Bill to change the time of holding courts in the counties of Hyde and Martin.

Bill to protect cattle from distemper and other infectious diseases.

Mr. Barnett, from the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably upon the bill to incorporate the Cape Fear Express Steamboat Company. Placed upon Calendar.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances reported favorably upon the bill in favor of J. P. Matheson, of Alexander county, and upon the bill to prevent the felling of timber in Contentnea Creek. Placed upon Calendar.

By Mr. French: A bill to allow the Secretary of State to employ an additional Clerk. Lies over.

By the same: A bill to incorporate the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company. Referred.

By the same: A resolution that it is the opinion of this General Assembly that the presence of the United States troops are imperatively demanded until the organization of the State Militia.

On motion of Mr. Downing the rules were suspended and the bill allowing the Commissioners of Union County to levy a special tax, was taken up and passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 83, nays none.

The Chair announced Messrs. Estes, Durham, Dixon, Whitley and Ashworth as the House branch of the Committee on Conference in regard to the resolution in relation to State lines.

The hour having arrived which was set apart yesterday, to pay the proper tributes to the memory of the late Senator from Pitt county the Hon D. J Rich, when,

Mr. Estes, took the floor and pronounced an eloquent and just eulogy upon the many shining qualities and well known merits of the departed Senator.

Messrs. Durham, Stilly, Jarvis, French and Reynolds, colored, followed in eulogy, each paying a glowing and touching tribute of praise to the memory of the distinguish Senator.

On motion of Mr. French, the House then adjourned until half past 7 o'clock this evening.

We believe with confidence we can affirm that the character of North Carolina, both for moral and political qualities, has been raised by the instrumentality of the Republican Legislature, to an elevation which it never before attained.—Standard.

And "we believe that we can affirm with confidence" that the character of North Carolina is as far above the earth and influence of your Republican Legislature as the stars of Heaven are above the soot and dirt of a tar kiln smoke, or the man in the moon is above the stench of a guano warehouse.—Carolina Observer.

A MYSTERY UNRAVELED—MONEY FOUND.

BLADEN Co., N. C., Feb. 10, 1869.

MESSRS EDITORS:—A very curious discovery has lately been made in a small islet situated in Big Swamp, about six or seven miles from this place, the particulars of which are as follows:

About sixty years ago, there lived, about a half a mile of this islet, on the eastern edge of the swamp, an Englishman, who was know among the settlers by the name of Elias Hugo. His first appearance into this region was in the Spring of 1806, then apparently in his thirty-eighth or ninth year, and although his language and bearing denoted that he had been educated, yet his hard brown features bore unmistakable evidences of a hard spent life. He was, it appears, somewhat above the ordinary size, and finely proportioned, presenting as fine a specimen of manhood as eye could wish to look upon. His manners was somewhat reserved and taciturn; his countenance, though a little haggard, would at once convince the beholder that he was no ordinary individual. Why he should seek a life so cheerless and secluded, was a mystery often spoken of by his neighbors. Yet, seemingly determined to cut himself off from the society of his fellow men, he proceeded to erect a cabin for himself in this dismally secluded spot, where, he said, when once deliberating on the vicissitudes of life, and the scenes through which he had passed, he earnestly hoped to pass his remaining years in perfect solitude.

The cabin fronted the swamp and from its front door, with its frail stoops, led a narrow walk to the swamp; thence, in a westerly direction, led a narrow track to the islet. His furniture consisted of a chair, a bench, a rough pine table, matrass, a buck t, and one or two cooking utensils.

Here, in this secluded abode, alone and uncared for, lived the mysterious stranger until the 13th of May, 1809. On that sad day, ere the morning sun exhaled the dewdrops that gemmed the forest leaves Elias Hugo breathed his soul into the hands of the immortal power that gave it.

After the death of Hugo, strange stories were told of a spectre that was seen, and of strange sounds that were heard about the house and premises, and so deeply had superstitious dread of the place taken hold upon the minds of the settlers that the cabin was permitted to decay and fall, as did its mysterious occupant.

Not long since, however, the place fell into the possession of other parties. Mr. Joel H. Esser and son. A clearing away of the remains of the old cabin was at once deemed necessary by the owners, and to this purpose, they applied themselves vigorously. They had not proceeded far, however, before they discovered, on raising the floor, a small tin box, snugly encased in the base of the chimney, under the hearth. They were not long in knowing its contents, as you can well imagine. The box is some eighteen or twenty inches square, and made of very thick tin. It contained a copy of Raphael's Madonna, to which was attached a small cross, a razor, with the initials "H. H." nicely engraved on the handle, and the following letter, which reveals the secret of the discovery of the box with nine hundred livres, which was made about three weeks ago, on the islet referred to in the commencement of of my letter.

"My Dear Brother:—This is perhaps the last address I shall ever send you. Before to-morrow's sun has set, I shall be in a spirit world, marching in the holy and wonderful company of the Holy Souls, who for the honor of Christ and the Holy Mary, despised the things of the world. Even now I feel as if the fountains of life were drying up. (Then in a tremulous hand.) "Come to America, as I animal you in a previous letter. I have buried all the money I brought with me, amounting to about one million and three hundred thousand dollars, on a small islet near by, the directions to which I have already sent you. The amount is contained in seven different boxes, and buried in separate places on the islet

"Your affectionate brother,
(Signed) ELIAS HUGO."

THE ALABAMA AND RECIPROCITY TREATIES.

A despatch to the New York Tribune says:

"The Alabama claims' treaty, the protocol which relates to the rights of naturalized citizens, and the treaty in regard to the boundary of San Juan, were under consideration in the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations on Thursday. Strong objections were made against the Alabama treaty by almost the entire Committee, and there appears to be little chance of its being ratified. It may be amended, however, so as to meet the views of the Committee, but these amendments, it is probable, will not be satisfactory to the English Government. The subject was laid aside until the next meeting. The Committee afterward took up the protocol, and after a short discussion authorized their Chairman, Mr. Sumner, to report it to the Senate for ratification.

"The subject of making a new reciprocity treaty with Canada was under consideration at the meeting of the Ways and Means committee on Thursday. The sub committee, to whom was referred the subject, reported favorably upon it. The committee, however, thought it best to merely report a resolution expressing their approval to the opening of negotiations, and authorizing the President of the United States to take such steps in negotiating a treaty as will open the free navigation of the St. Lawrence, and commercial relations between our Government and Canada, and a proper protection to the fisheries. The resolution will be reported to the House by Gen. Schenck, with a view of securing its passage at the present session, so that the work may be commenced at an early day. It is understood that the Canadian authorities are very anxious that some kind of a reciprocity treaty should be made that will be beneficial to both Governments."

THE NEW CABINET.—The matter is rather too good to keep, so it has leaked out that a delegation of gentlemen from Pennsylvania called upon Gen. Grant previous to his departure North, and represented that the vital interests of the Republican party in their State demanded a place to the Cabinet for a Pennsylvanian, and that the choice should be made judiciously, as unless the right man should be selected, the Republicans might, even in case of such appointment, sustain defeat at the next election. It is reported the gentlemen did not press the name of any particular person. Gen. Grant said in reply that Pennsylvania politics were more corrupt than those of any other State, and that before making any selection from Pennsylvania, he would deliberate and consult with a man he sees in the glass every morning, as he did not desire any member of his Cabinet tainted with political corruption. This statement comes so straight that it cannot be doubted.—Wash. Cor. New York Journal of Commerce.

Raleigh, Feb 11-1w

TO THE VOTERS OF THE SIXTEENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT COMPOSED OF THE COUNTIES OF HARNETT, CUMBERLAND AND SAMPSON.

Having received the unanimous nomination of the Conservative Convention which assembled in Fayetteville on the 12th of February, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for a seat in the Senate of North Carolina, and respectfully solicit your suffrages for that position on the 25th of the present month. I stand firmly and squarely on the platform of our country, of Constitutional rights and Constitutional freedom, and, relying on the strength of the friends who have thus honored me, I feel that the right must prevail, and we must be again represented by a Conservative in the Assembly of North Carolina. The time is so short that it is impossible for me to see many of the electors in the District, and I must, of course, rely mostly on the friends of our cause, using at the same time all my individual efforts and ability to secure the position. If so favor me with your support you may be assured that all my energies, and all my ability, will be devoted to the interests of North Carolina, and to the rebuilding of our shattered fortunes.

Work? work! will be my watchword, and I call upon all the friends of the cause to aid me with their might and their suffrages.

Let us rise in the majesty of our strength, and again carry our District; unity and vigorous, personal action will accomplish it. I am not bound by the Howard amendment, and can take my seat if elected. Very respectfully,

Your obt servt,
C TATE MURPHY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requiring a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unusual character of the antiseptic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diuretic stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a connected form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was also attached to each label and cover, the name and trade mark of the preparation was also enclosed in the bottle, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country without the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the credulity of invalids by vending counterfeits and imitations of meritorious remedies, that the precautions so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the capacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the endorsement which the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by numerous parties; the name alone has been left untouched, the advertisements paraphrased, the circulars copied, and worse than all, unmistakable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of the bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and then made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested in the prompt exposure of the detestable and impudent attempt to defraud them by the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK 53 CEDAR STREET,

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have taken pains to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification; that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,
We remain your obedient servants,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Certificates of Stock lost: James G. White.

Family Carriage for sale. Carolina Farmer: James M. Towles.

Twenty five dollars reward: Wm. Hinnant.

W. H. Vaughn, well known in this community, offers his services as piano tuner and repairer. He is here, in our midst, and warrant his work. Vaughn is a natural musician and a practical mechanic, and deserves patronage.

As will be seen by reference to advertisement, our old friend Henry Porter, has commenced the Boot and Shoe business again in this City, after an absence of several years. Mr. Porter is well known in Raleigh, as a prompt workman and reliable.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY AND FAIR.—We are glad to observe that our State papers have, generally, responded to the call made on them, last week, to copy the proceedings of the friends of the State Agricultural Fair, and to urge the farmers and others, to meet in the city of Raleigh on the 20th inst., to take further steps to once again inaugurate the annual gathering of the people of the State, at Raleigh, as in former years. We believe there will be a full meeting on the 20th, in the Court House, which will result in reviving both the State Agricultural Society and Fair.

The Local of the Sentinel would simply suggest to the Henderson Index, that "beauty unadorned, is adorned the most." And the views, as expressed, some days ago, are the result of years of observation—and we think we have a right to know, whereof we write. We agree with the Index, that the Henderson ladies are not only good looking, but very handsome—and, we insist, too, that they have the qualification necessary to their good looks, by being plain North Carolina daughters. Will that quiet your nerves?

The city of Wilmington seems to be infested with numberless ragged, or thinly clad, rogues. The Journal says, "since the first of the month no less than a dozen overcoats have been stolen from various private residences. Scarcely a day has passed that we have not heard of some gentleman suffering in this manner. The theft is in every instance perpetrated before the families retire to rest. The thief generally watches his chances, knowing that the overcoats usually hang in the entry, and if the door is for a moment left unlocked, then good bye to the overcoat. They enter houses with apparently as much unconcern as if they were inmates, and have often been heard without exciting suspicion.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE.—The anniversary of the Washington Literary Society, connected with this time honored institution of learning, will take place on the evening of the 22nd, inst. Eulogist, Jed. W. Dudley, of West Virginia; Orators, R B. Horsell, of Va., and Chas. Carroll, of S. C.; President of the Society J. Wilson, of Va.; Vice Presidents, Messrs. J. W. Compton and F. M. Bowers, of Va.; Marshals, Messrs. F. M. Smith and T. H. Scott, of Va.

The exercises on this interesting occasion will be of the first order. The chapel will be finely decorated, the campus brilliantly illuminated; a brass band has been engaged, and there will be a procession of the Alumni and honorary members of the Society.

We acknowledge, and return thanks, for an invitation to be present, and only regret, that our duties will prevent us from yielding to our desires.

SOME of the Northern editors are getting tired of going to church three or four times on Sunday, and some of the Northern preachers declare they must preach less, or get a dispensation to read their old sermons, occasionally, as well as to throw in a printed discourse from some of the old English divines. It begins to be doubted whether so much church going is profitable, and "evenings at home" are advocated with much earnestness and good sense.

An able preacher at the North on being asked Monday morning, whether he had preached twice yesterday, replied: "I preached once, as usual, and once, as usual, I disnutified !"

The Editor of the Charlotte Times has been shown a very handsome chased silver cup with the following inscription:

Capt Earnshaw has been for many years the superintendent of this Factory, and this testimonial is from those who have long known him. The cup is from Butler's (not of spoons memory) elegant establishment, and is really beautiful.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 14, P. M.

Editors Sentinel:—A Convention was held here on Friday last, composed of delegates from the counties of Sampson, Cumberland and Harnett, to nominate a candidate for the Senate from this district, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the banning of John A. Oates, Esq., who was returned from these three counties at the last election, but has been declared ineligible by reason of holding office prior to the war. The nomination of Dr. C. Tate Murphy, of Sampson, proposed by a Committee appointed for that purpose, was unanimously concurred in by the meeting. I have no previous acquaintance with Dr. Murphy, but he is well known here and highly spoken of.

On Saturday, the Radicals held a nominating Convention in the Town Hall, and the choice fell upon Jas. R. Lee, of this county and town. Let us pause to moralize. And yet what we now see every day is but "history repeating itself," Stone-breakers, road menders, and all the worst characters of the canaille sat in judgment on the fortunes of France, and chopped off the heads of her nobles; and the brawny arms of a mob of fish women were strong enough to bow the glorious head and hurl the royal crown of Marie Antoinette into the dust. Goth and Western barbarism drove the proud old Roman patricians from their Senatorial seats, and it was no help to the dignity of wisdom that it scorned and hated the ignorance that trampled it down. In our day "Cuffee" expresses this abnormal condition in a nutshell: "Bress de Lord, de bo tom rail's on top." In the earlier days of our good old State, to be a senator, was to lend the people by the force and influence of wisdom, talent and good counsel. Think of a "latter day" loyal legislator, who returns thanks for his nomination in this wise:—"Gemmen, I am much obliged for dis nomination," &c., &c. The Radical nominee whom I have spoken of above is illiterate even to a point of admiration; either one of our two negro representatives up in your city could beat him to death in the speller and definer; he could not spell appropriations if he was going to be buried at the stake, and yet he will do to help buy kikles skeletons and vote railroad taxes upon the people. But in this case he won't do.—Sampson, Cumberland and Harnett will send another Democratic Senator, and although little can now be effected among the drove of jackals feasting on the carcas of the State, we have the consolation of feeling that by sending a good man we prevent a great deal of harm. We lessen by one the number of pickers and stealers of the Radical party.

Your old blacksmith friend and axe-man, who was on the "Penitentiary Investigating Committee," Silas Bures, has been much talked of here as the "coming man" for the presidency of the Western Railroad from this place, to extend which $2,000,000 have recently been voted. But I think there be another 'Richmond in the field,' in the person of Mr. Henry E. Colton, a North Carolinian and son of Rev. Mr. Colton, who died recently. I am not prepared to speak of his capacity in this line. Henry was a private in my company, but he was never talked of much in connection with railroads by the men, and his genius for this slumbered and slumbered in his manly breast until a two-millioner sprung it into life. He stayed with our company and stood to his guns as long as they were unloaded and we remained at Fort ——— to taste the sea air, but when we moved off to see sights he moved Raleigh-ward and became a Clerk in the Legislature, I believe.

But whoever gets the Presidency of this or any other road had better be in haste to make some disposition of the bonds so munificently proffered, or they will turn to waste paper in his hands. For as sure as you and I live until 1871 we will witness repudiation, complete and sweeping. What! With a swarm of negroes, speculators, interlopers, without intelligence, integrity or character, infesting the State Capital, and overrunning every department of the government; proposing and consummating all sorts of preposterous and absurd schemes; slashing right and left into the Treasury and resources of the State; voting honest men's means and money like water; swelling the debt to the enormous amount of $40,000,000; and in their shameless corruption jeering and defying the people!—is the credit of North Carolina to remain unshaken under these blows, and are the people to accept this terrible responsibility, when, in the days of their prosperity they groaned under the burden of one-fourth of it?

I don't talk good naturedly about these things, I know; nor do I feel good natured when contemplating the heterogeneous procession which makes up the "march of civilization," is, every man of them, gathering plunder from the field of an oppressed and impoverished people. We are told that we had better conciliate the Radical party, and use it to our own interests. This is the counsel of your Railroad schemers, who stumped the country and made Democratic speeches, during the campaign, and are now caucussing in the lobbies, and tickling the palms of negroes and carpet-baggers.—For myself, I want no half way measures with the motley brood. Let her foes, not her friends, rend the breast of our devoted mother; and, when a broken, violated Constitution, and a distracted Commonwealth, dishonored and disgraced, fall into ruins, to reproach those who should have been their defenders, I want it to be from no guilt of conscience that I cry, "Thou canst not say I did it."

Robeson county is a delightful place to live in. Its county seat, Lumberton, is euphoniously and paradisically called the "garden spot" by those who are well acquainted with it. Its vicinity boasts of a regularly organized band of robbers, who amuse themselves by sending pleasant messages to the neighbors, letting them know on what particular night they will call over to cut their throats and take all their meat and money. The other day they sent a grape vine telegram into Lumberton, announcing that the column would move upon that city just at sunset, when the houses and stores were to be sacked and the people cut up.

Now, all the above is the fact, told in my facetious style. I have not heard from Lumberton since the threat was made. The chief of the band is a mulatto named Lowry, and it is believed that the rest are partly blacks and partly whites, who black their faces. They have a subterranean cave, pitfall, stockade, &c., &c., and they openly defy the law. They do not attract much attention except from the people who are in their power.

A negro once attempted to ravish a respectable white girl near this place, and an indignant mob killed him. This brought a garrison, with a colored Adjutant and pet, here to Fayetteville; it convened a military commission in Raleigh, which scores of citizens were forced from their business to attend, being paid, therefor, about one-half their actual expenses; and it incarcerated innocent men, for months, in a military prison. But a band of black and white murderers defy a whole county; they snap their fingers at the law; they enter a house and shoot down two innocent men; (ex Sheriff King and Mr. Ward, the particulars of which you have doubtless heard) and they announce an attack upon the inhabitants of a corporate town. And still the Sheriff of the county sits upon his haunches and waits! Still the General Assembly hummers away upon railroads and per diem! Still "our beloved" Governor takes excursions on new locomotives with a car load of barkeepers! No relief for Southern citizens who are hunted down and slaughtered like dogs! No proclamation offered for the apprehension of a mulatto outlaw (who doubtless voted loyally) although Holden wanted to offer a proclamation for Gov. Vance! No reward offered for the head of a highway robber and murderer, although Holden asked "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln!"

Bah! Let the people take such things into their own hands, and snap their fingers at this Holden mockery of government, which is flaunting in their faces and insulting them, and their wrongs from the halls of that stately Capitol where Gaston, Manly, Morehead, Ruffin, Ellis and Vance used to preside as the fathers and protectors of the people!

The next time I write I will endeavor to give you some more pleasant news from Fayetteville.

CLIO.

STATE ITEMS.

THE Statesville American says, Burton Queen, was brought before Judge Mitchell, at this place, last Tuesday, and admitted to bail in the sum of three thousand dollars, to answer the charge of taking the life of —— Parlier, his brother in law, in Wilkes county, recently.

From the same paper, we learn there are eight or nine vacant stores in Statesville for rent, furnished in the best manner, and awaiting tenants with stocks of merchandise to invite customers. There are also several vacant dwellings for rent or sale, and others going up. Now is the time for settlers to pitch their tents in our midst, before a rise in property, consequent upon the rebuilding of the railroads, shall take place—for Statesville is bound to be a centre for Railroads ere a great while, and it is one of the most desirable towns for residence in the State. One of the best Female Colleges ("Concord") in the South, is located at this place, and also, one of the most flourishing male Academies, conducted by Messrs. Hill and Burke. Then fourteen miles off, there is Olin High School, presided over by Mr. Jas. M. Southgate, and twenty miles distant is Davidson College. So Statesville is in the midst of schools and Colleges, of the best grade, for boys and girls—and the most beautiful of country. It only requires men of enterprize to settle in our midst, to make Statesville one of the most flourishing interior towns in the State, as it is one of the most desirable to reside in.

The Newbern Times says:

Newberne is to be evacuated. The "boys in blue" are to be withdrawn from its sacred precincts. The entire command are to "git up and git." At least, so we are informed by one of the officers on duty here. The barracks will be evacuated and sold as soon as final orders are received to that effect.—We shall miss the "boys," for they have been around here so long that they seem as "native as to the manner born" as though it was here they first saw light. We presume, however, that this step is not with a view to an immediate evacuation of the State, but for a more complete concentration, perhaps at Goldsboro,

Oh, no; they'll not leave the State—not yet. We suppose they are moving up the country, to quell the fears of some of our timid people, who think they can smell a Ku Klux in every breeze. True, we have quite a number of United States infantry already in our midst—but, they are kept so close, it would be difficult for a stranger to find out their locality. Leave the State—not exactly!

Last Saturday afternoon, says Statesville American, about 4 o'clock, when Mr. J. W. Woodward, who keeps the Jail at this place, went in to take supper to the prisoners, on entering the room where six negroes were confined, one of them, Duffy by name, seized Mr. Woodward by the throat, and tussled with him until three of the prisoners made their escape by the door, and the Duffy followed—all four making for the woods. The two remaining negroes, were kept in by Mr. W. drawing his pistol, which, in the fray, he had been unable to do. Mr. Woodward gave the alarm, and a number of citizens pressed the fugitives on horse-back and in about a half hour, the four rascals were again safely lodged in their old quarters, and are now secured by irons.

The negro, Duffy, who assaulted Mr. W., was detected, on Tuesday, in an attempt to release himself. He had nearly severed the rivet that confined the brace, with an old jack-knife. The knife was discovered concealed in the corner of an old quilt, and its hiding place was only revealed by the negroes after several of them had been stripped of their clothing, and turned into a cold room to shiver.

REMOVAL OF BRITISH PROHIBITION UPON THE IMPORTATION OF HAY INTO THE UNITED KINGDOM FROM THE UNITED STATES.—Mr. Reverdy Johnson, the Minister of the United States at London, has informed the Secretary of State that he has received official notification that the restrictions imposed by the Orders in Council of the 15th of September, 1868, and the 19th of October, 1868, upon the importation of hay into the United Kingdom from any port of the United States, were removed by an Order in Council of the 15th ultimo, revoking those above referred to.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

FROM RICHMOND—UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

RICHMOND, Feb. 17, P. M.

In the United States Circuit Court, Judge Underwood presiding, the case of Robert Stevens, (negro) of Charleston, S. C., against the Richmond and Fredericksburg Railroad Company, for putting his wife in a second class car, by force, after selling her a first class ticket.

The Judge, in his charge to the Jury, which was composed of half blacks and half whites, said: "Distinction, on account of color, was a relic of barbarism which had been, happily, done away with, even in that sink of iniquity, New York, where it had been tolerated longer than elsewhere to secure the Southern trade."

After an incidental statement, to the effect that Virginians were given to drunkenness and that Clergy were not exempt from this frailty, the Judge read several extracts from the Bible and closed by instructing the Jury to teach this Company that they must not make distinctions on account of color.

The Jury brought in a verdict of $1,600 damages for the plaintiff.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb 17 P. M.

The friends of Gen Sherman are raising one hundred thousand dollars for him.

It is stated again that the Senate Judiciary Committee are about reporting a Virginia bill, by which the people can vote for or against disfranchising clauses, while voting for the Constitution itself.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17, P. M.

SENATE.—The Judiciary Committee say that after a careful examination of the subject, they have no hesitation in coming to the conclusion that the President's proclamation, of December, was wholly beyond the constitutional power of the President, and that it can have no efficiency to the end reached by it. The Constitution permits him to grant reprieves and pardon, but no pardon and amnesty. They argue to show that amnesty is a larger power than pardon, operating upon the crime instead of the criminal, and effecting restoration and restitution ubiatio, instead of merely remitting unexecuted punishment and proceeding like what is called a general pardon, not from the Executive, be he King or President, but from the government, the sovereign power, which, in England, was the King in and with his Parliament, as in the United States it is the Congress acting with the approval of the President, or by a two-thirds vote, without it.

The Senate Judiciary Committee reported against the present action on the credentials of Senator Miller, from Georgia.

Conference report on the navy bill was concurred in. It claims to save one million, and reduces personal navy to standing as before the war.

The following is the resolution offered by the Judiciary Committee: "That in the opinion of the Senate, the proclamation of the President of the United States, dated Dec 25th, 1868, purporting to grant pardon and amnesty to all persons guilty of treason and acts of hostility to the United States, during the late rebellion, with the restoration of rights, &c., was not authorized by the Constitution or laws."

Stewart moved to recede from the Senate amendments to the suffrage constitutional amendment and adopt the bill as it came from the House. A long discussion followed which is still progressing.

HOUSE.—The Louisiana election report was ordered to be printed and laid on the table.

A joint resolution, regulating travel by steam vessels, passed.

Amendments to the banking act was discussed all day, and, finally, the whole subject was tabled.

Recess.

The House is considering appropriations to-night.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

BRANCH OFFICE:

FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,

PHILADELPHIA,

where the general business of the Company is transacted, and to which all general correspondence should be addressed.

OFFICERS.

CLARENCE H CLARK, President.
JAY COOK, Chairman Finance and Executive Committee.
HENRY D. COOKE, Vice President.
EMERSON W. PEET, Secretary and Actuary.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of Premiums, and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an ANNUAL INCOME equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent) of the par of his policy. In the latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The organization of this Company on the LOW RATE, CASH PLAN, with new features and unequaled security, has provoked the most remarkable opposition from older and rival Companies. By means, fair and unfair, they have sought to injure the new system, and have attacked it with a degree of virulence unknown in the history of Life Insurance.

Not satisfied with the immense sums of money paid Insurance and other journals, to try and check the rapid progress of the National, an unsuccessful motion was made in Congress to repeal its Charter, all of which but accelerated its speed for since then the largest policies issued have been to members of Congress, whose attention has been thus attracted to its unsurpassed advantages. In the face of this opposition, the work of the Company has gone steadily forward, and it is with no little satisfaction that the GENERAL AGENTS are able to state that the business to date is far in advance of anything hitherto accomplished

In Six Months 3,000 Policies have Been Issued.

INSURING, IN ROUND NUMBERS,

$10,000,000.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives, or increasing the amount of insurance they already have is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Co

Office: First door South of Raleigh Nat. Bank,
RALEIGH, N. C.

THIS HOME COMPANY, CHARTERED BY the Legislature of North Carolina, insures property against loss or damage by

FIRE, LIGHTNING, OR TORNADO,

and does business on the Mutual and Joint Stock plans.

The character of those who control the affairs of the Company is a sufficient guarantee that it is, what it professes to be, a HOME ENTERPRIZE, offering ample and liberal protection against loss by fire, &c., on the most easy and liberal terms to insurers.

The TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS in N. C. Bonds, required by the Charter to be deposited with the Public Treasurer, have promptly been so deposited and the Treasurer's receipt therefor obtained.

Policies are issued for a term not to exceed five years.

No other Company offers greater inducements to Insurers.

Now is the time for all who feel any interest in a HOME INSTITUTION to come forward and encourage this Company,—receiving, as they will, reciprocal benefit in the enhancement of value and protection of their property.

For further particulars, address the Secretary, or consult General or Local Agents, who will, in due time, be announced.

ALL LOSSES PROMPTLY ADJUSTED AND PAID.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to beseech even with one eye shut? so let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK BUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
